The City of Mills will be finalizing our lead and copper water pipe inventory during the month of September. The Public Works staff may be in contact with residents for verification purposes.

A Friendly Reminder:

If you owe Court Fines to the City of Mills, please make sure they are paid on or before the due date to avoid a bench warrant. We take payments in person at 704 4th St or by credit/debit card by calling 307-472-2827.

Healthy Natrona CredibleMind emphasizes preventive care and self-management strategies. By providing tools and knowledge to manage mental health proactively, users can take steps to maintain and improve their well-being before issues escalate. Best of all, it's free and available anytime, day or night, offering valuable resources to help you feel better whenever you need them. Your privacy is our priority. We do not track or store any personal information when you use our services. It provides videos, apps, podcasts and lots of other resources. Please visit: healthynatrona.crediblemind.com.
