

ORDINANCE NO. 201

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND AND RE-ENACT SECTION 6 OF ORDINANCE NO. 180, APPEARING IN THE MILLS MUNICIPAL CODE AS SECTION 2.24-060, ENTITLED "JUDGMENT---COSTS".

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE TOWN OF MILLS, WYOMING.

SECTION 1. That Section 6 of Ordinance No. 180, 1968, be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 4. JUDGMENT, COLLECTION AND ACCOUNTING OF COSTS. If at any time during the conduct of a trial before him, the Police Justice shall be convinced that the defendant is not guilty, he may forthwith dismiss the case and order the discharge of the defendant. But if the defendant confess his guilt, or if following the hearing of all pertinent testimony, the Justice be convinced of the guilt of the accused person, that the act was committed by him as charged and that the act did constitute a violation of the ordinance of the town as stated in the complaint and warrant, or of any lawful ordinance of the town, the Justice shall render his verdict that the defendant is found guilty as charged, and shall assess the punishment and costs and render judgment according to the ordinances of the town. In any case where there is involved any disobedience by the defendant of any lawful order of any officer of the town, the judgment of the Police Justice shall include the requirement that such disobeyed order be complied with. The defendant shall have the right to produce before the Police Justice, one or more sureties to the satisfaction of the Justice, which sureties shall with the defendant, confess a judgment for the amount of the fine or penalty imposed, with costs, and the Justice shall enter such confession of judgment upon his docket, and render judgment accordingly in the name of the state, against them for the amount of the fine and costs, and if the judgment is not paid within ninety days of the date of such confession, the Justice shall issue execution and collect the amount of the fine and costs, in the manner provided by law for collecting judgments by execution in the Justice of the Peace Court. Provided, further, that in all proceedings in which the defendant confesses his guilt or in which the defendant is found guilty following the hearing of all pertinent testimony, the Police Justice shall assess costs against the defendant in the sum of four dollars which costs shall be collected by the Police Justice and remitted to the Town Treasurer and the Police Justice shall report, at the end of each calendar month, a list of all cases for violations of Town Ordinances instituted in his Court, and disposition thereof, together with a statement of the fines, penalties and costs by him assessed and received. Provided further, that unless a lesser amount or a shorter term of imprisonment is provided in the ordinance for the breach of which the defendant has been found guilty, no fine assessed shall be for a sum of more than one hundred dollars, and no imprisonment shall be for a period longer than three months.

SECTION 2. FORMER ORDINANCE REPEALED. Section 6 of Ordinance 180, and any and all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
