COME TO CHEYENNE

Join us for an inspiring journey at the 2024 WYOPASS/Western Planner Conference, themed "Crossroads and Crosswinds," co-hosted by Western Planner and the Wyoming Planning Association. Set against the picturesque Western backdrop of Cheyenne, Wyoming, from August 6-9, this conference promises a unique blend of insights and solutions at the intersection of planning challenges and the ever-changing winds of progress. Engage with fellow planners, professionals, and enthusiasts as we navigate the crossroads of innovation and tradition. This event will feature expert speakers, interactive workshops, and networking opportunities to help you navigate the complex landscape of planning in the West. Be a part of shaping the future at this gathering of minds dedicated to fostering resilient and vibrant communities.

SPECIAL WORKSHOPS

This year at the Western Planner conference, we have three special deep-dive, half-day workshops available for attendees. In Housing Affordability, experts in housing economics, policy, and practice will share their insights and applications from regional, state, and local perspectives. In the GIS Workshop, learn skills and applications to unlock GIS technology for planners. During our Planning Commissioner training, speakers will be focusing on general and situational ethics, legal concerns, and guidance on dealing with common challenges. Full agendas for these special workshops will be forthcoming, but all workshops can be purchased individually or are free to full conference registrants.

EVENING SOCIALS

Come enjoy the magical Cheyenne evenings with your fellow Western planners at the 2024 WYOPASS / Western Planner Conference. The event kicks off with an informal opening reception on Tuesday at the Westby Edge Brewery, the jewel of the West Edge revitalization. On Wednesday, we'll host our annual awards at the Cheyenne Botanic Gardens, featuring dinner from various food trucks (provided) and drinks sponsored by Ayres Associates, followed by Wyoming vs. the World Kickball. Thursday's schedule includes an informal pub crawl with trolley service to multiple local breweries. We'll conclude the event on Friday with a free concert at the Train Depot's "Fridays on the Plaza" series.

MOBILE SESSIONS

Come learn all that Cheyenne offers during the 2024 WYOPASS / Western Planner Conference. We're offering five mobile sessions: a legislative tour at the Wyoming Capitol, with a potential lunch with legislators; a tour of the NCAR supercomputer complex; a tour of the West Edge's revitalization and transformation; a tour of the High Plains Arboretum; and a Wild-West History trolley tour. Additionally, courtesy of Visit Cheyenne, we're providing self-guided tours and free time to enjoy the public art, history, and historic pubs of downtown Cheyenne. Space on each session is limited so register and reserve your space today!
